The Inayatiyya Nederland/Vlaanderen
warmly invites you to an open evening lecture
followed by a retreat weekend

"Our soul is blessed with the impression of the glory of God whenever we praise God"

- Hazrat Inayat Khan -

📅 Friday evening August 23, 2024, 20:00 – 21:30
Prayer in Times of Difficulty, Injustice, and War
📍 Sufi Centrum Den Haag
Anna Paulownastraat 78, 2518 BJ Den Haag

📅 Saturday August 24 – Sunday August 25, 2024
The Many Ways of Praise
📍 A Sufi Retreat in Murad Hasil
Zuidduinseweg 5, 2225 JS, Katwijk aan Zee

Every religion, every creature, has its own way of reaching out to the divine. From the flutter of an angel's wings to the silent strength of an oak tree, prayer echoes throughout creation. As humans, we are complex beings, comprised of soul, mind, and body. Each facet of our existence holds its own sacred connection to the divine.

Join us for a weekend retreat where we delve into the heart of prayer: What is the prayer of your luminous and immortal spirit? How does your imaginative psyche express its yearning for the divine? What kind of prayer resonates deep within your bones?
During this retreat we will explore the diverse pathways of worship and rededicate ourselves to the purpose for which we were born.

Pir Zia Inayat Khan carries the Sufi lineage of his grandfather, Hazrat Inayat Khan. He received his Ph.D. in Religion from Duke University. His books include Saracen Chivalry: Counsels on Valor, Generosity, and the Mystical Quest, Mingled Waters: Sufism and the Mystical Unity of Religions, and Dream Flowers: The Collected Works of Noor Inayat Khan. Pir Zia is president of the Inayatiyya and founder of Suluk Academy. He and his family live in Richmond, VA, the United States.
